

Cover & Resume: Remote Full-Stack JavaScript Web Informatics Systems Specialist

Hi,

As an experienced Full-Stack JavaScript Developer with globally acknowledged qualifications, I am actively looking for remote web development openings that are blistering internet. Overlapping the role of an IT administrator, I specialize in operating the Web Informatics Systems of an enterprise. In addition, my typical responsibilities oblige developing, mutating, and deploying Cloud Computing Blocks to meet organization dynamic requirements in this ever-changing world.

Been employed from enterprises-to-startups, my skills are genuinely admired in mid-size companies having 100-500 employees.

A testimony of my statements, my resume is available at:
